Trice Bennett For County Attorney.

Of our countyman and candidate for the democratic nomination as County Attorney, the Love county News of Marietta, Oklahoma, has this to say:

"We learn that Trice C. Bennett a former resident of Marietta is a candidate for county attorney of Crittenden county, Ky., and the News with his hundreds of friends in Love county hope he will win out, as he is the right man for this place.

While here Trice was considered one of the brightest young lawyers in the state and enjoyed a large practice. He was employed in some of the most noted civil and criminal cases ever tried in the county and always won out. He was a democrat of the truest southern type and was always among the first in the democratic ranks. When he had built up a very lucrative practice here his wife was taken sick and he moved back to Marion, Ky., his old home where a brother-in-law of R. H. Haynes of this city.

If elected Trice Bennett will make Crittenden county a faithful officer, and the editor of the River here this morning. The News together with hundreds of mine was flooded by heavy rains Love county people commend this spring. The water was rehim to the citizens of that coun-

Burleson Promises Aid For Road in Kentucky.

Washington, July 22.-The postmaster general promised a delegation of Kentuckians headed by Senator James today that as soon as Montgomery, Bath, Fleming and Mason counties raise $80,000 the government will add $40,000 to the fund for building a road from Owingsville to Maysville. The road will run through Bath, Fleming, Montgomery and Mason and the postoffice department has the right to pay one-third the cost of the road under a recent act of congress. Those who visited the department were Henry R. Prewitt, of Mt. Sterling; T. D. Slatterly, of Maysville; and Judge Crooks, of Owingsville.

War Story Of 50 Years Ago. BY H. L. RILEY.

As the little sketch of "Fifty Years Ago," appeared in your paper of July 10th, I will tell some of the happenings of the day before or Saturday, July 4th. Our little force at Lebanon was thrown into excitement when news reached us that the Raider, John Morgan's forces were fighting the 25th Michigan regiment at Green River bridge out on the Columbia pike not far from Lebanon. Our commander sent out a scouting party mounted on horses that were not drilled. They came into camp a little before night and were going back on the scout that night, and I being just a kid and very brave, like a great many others when not in danger, begged one of the boys to let me go in his place on the night scout, so he readily agreed, so we started after dark out the Columbia pike. We were all mounted, I was on | a fine bay horse. I was unaccquainted with his occupation. It was a beautiful moon-light night, we got out three or four miles from camp, going up a long slant in a lane, our advance ran onto the enemy's pickets. They came down slant in a hurry to meet us. Our commander ordered us to dismount, which order was quickly obeyed and hitched our horses to an old time rail fence we then advanced until in sight of the enemy's pickets when we were ordered to fire on them which we did and then fell back a short distance and all of us pecting the enemy to come down the road on us, but to our surprise some one discovered a large body of them a good long distance from us across hibiting it. the field, hurrying to get in our rear so they would be enabled to gobble us up, but we were ordered to skedaddle. Every man ran to his horse and was head up in the air holding the rails off habits and take Chamberlain's Tablets Perry Malone, editor of the Livingrails out of the reins, and every other sale by all dealers. SUGGESTIONS BY

How Kentucky Schools May Be Improved.

TO EXTEND TERM IN OFFICE.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Should Have More Time to Carry Out Reforms-Aim Should Be Education Rather Than Instruction-Importance of Electing Good Officials.

Why Not?
[From the Louisville Times.]

The awakened and more intelligent interest in all that pertains to education in the commonwealth suggests an inquiry in some quarters. Why not, they ask, so contrive as that a continuity of reform be made the more certain by permitting a second term to the superintendent of public instruction? Allowing for the time necessary for him to shake down in his office and become at home with the routine, how, in the brief space left, may he hope to shape and perfect plans 'that shall have time to blossom and bear fruit? Is it not essential that if those plans meet public approval and support they be given every widest opportunity to prove their worth by results?

The suggestion is worth consideration. There is much to be said for it and something, no doubt, on the other side. But, at first glance, we are free to state that it 'listens' well.

Our Slogan-"Education is an in vestment, ignorance is a tax."

[From the Russell Democrat.] Herein lies the importance of educa tion. We should educate rather than part of education. Studies are a means and not an end.

Children are by nature eager for information. They are always putting questions, and this ought to be encouraged. Their instincts may be trusted
